

Slocum Glider Field Recovery Procedure

For vessel operators and external deployment partners

This document covers the field-team side of a Slocum G3 recovery: the nose recovery system (recommended), a backup workboat procedure if it fails to eject, and stowing the glider once it's aboard. For the corresponding on-shore actions, see Remote Pilot Recovery Procedure.

Source

Paraphrased from NorGliders / University of Bergen (UiB) field procedure notes (SL11 – User Notes – G3 Recovery Field).

